

The Wolf School Kindergarten Program

The Wolf School Kindergarten Program is now accepting applications for the 2014-2015 school year

An intensive therapy guided model that addresses three learning challenges:

- Language processing and production
- Sensory regulation
- Socially effective communication

Our Kindergarten Program is 5 days a week from 8:30-1:30 and includes the following:

- Small instructional group learning with individualized child centered goals
- Lessons that integrate language and sensory skills and develop social play skills
- Teaching methodologies that foster successful learning

Your child will have the opportunity to:

- Participate in a classroom community with established routines
- Engage socially with children throughout the school
- Learn strategies to focus, attend and develop in a nurturing learning environment
