In the News

Walt Buteau visits The Wolf School

It's an inspiring story that made the news last Friday. After years of struggle Alex Azar found school success at Wolf. We are proud to have Alex and his mom showcase their story and explain how Wolf has made a difference. If you missed this wonderful report on Channel 12 News, just click below.

Making Change Happen

After discussing the devastation of the earthquake and tsunami that hit Japan, the 6th graders at Wolf decided to take action. They created a Campaign for Change, designing posters and talking to each classroom about bringing in change to donate to the victims of the tragic events.

Seeing that every penny counts, the students raised $265.08 to send to Japan. Thanks to the 6th grade class for reaching out and making a difference!
