CLASS OF 2012 GRADUATES

You can't help but be proud of the amazing eighth graders at The Wolf School who crossed the stage during an emotional graduation ceremony in the Pelson Center this June.

This close-knit group of students achieved so much during their time at Wolf. In addressing the class of 2012 Jessica Robins Miller, Head of School, said, "One of the factors that sets you apart as a graduating class is that you all know yourselves very well - you know your strengths and you know your challenges -and you like yourselves just as you are- you celebrate your individuality and your uniqueness and you are true to yourselves."

Congratulations to the students for their many accomplishments. And Board Chair Scott DiCristofero, 8th grade graduate Jonathan Lehourites, and Head of School Jessica Robins Miller.
