More Fun Than a Marching Band!

This year's Discover the Difference fundraiser was a colossal success, highlighted by a powerful parent testimony, an amazing scholarship auction hosted by Tony Petrarca from Channel 12 News, and a visit from The Extraordinary Rendition Band (ESB).

Avi David (right), former Wolf music teacher and ESB member with Sharon Rust, parent of a Wolf School graduate.

Over 200 people were in attendance at the Rhode Island Convention Center's Rotunda Room, enjoying a fabulous silent and live auction, wonderful food, and an incredible outpouring of good will and philanthropy from Wolf families and supporters.

The evening's festivities raised over $80,000 for Wolf School students and increased our guests' appreciation for the impact this powerful educational model has on children with complex learning differences.

Field Day Udderly Fun-tastic!

On Wednesday, May 8, students and families at The Wolf School celebrated spring with a host of fun activities including a Field Day and wiffle ball game. Add a visit from two food trucks - Spike's Junkyard Dogs and Like No Udder - and you have the ingredients for the perfect afternoon! Many thanks to the Wolf School Parent Organization (WSPO) for hosting this terrific event, and to all the teachers, staff and parents who made the day a home run!
